A Real Man

An evening of comedy, tragedy and inspiration with Comedian Mike Guido

A successful stand-up comic, formerly of Eugene, has taken his struggles coping with his daughter's autism and turned them into a one-man show

Recommended for students, parents, educators, providers and people who like to laugh!!

It's just crazy at my house.

A guy stole my identity ...

he gave it back.

Apparently he didn't want to be me.
